NEWSY ITEMS FROM OUR EXCHANGES

Laurel Advocate: Miss Nelle Fleming was at home from Sioux City to spend the Thanksgiving holidays.

Meadow Grove News: Edward Antrim returned to Sioux City Monday and resumed his studies at Morning-side college.

Wisner Chronicle: Mrs. Helen Rich went to Bloomfield last Saturday to make her home with her son, Supt. A. B. Rich.

Hartington Herald: E. W. Provancha returned to his home at Sioux City Monday after spending Thanksgiving here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Provancha.

Central City Nonpareil: Misses Lucille Hoagland and Lon Wolcott and Mrs. Earl Cox entertained the Parish club Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Hoagland.

Magnet items in Wausa Gazette: The Ed R. Schmitt family of Ord, Neb., spent Thanksgiving with the Seval Olsen family of this city, returning to their home on Saturday morning.

Wakefield Republican: Mrs. Terwilliger went to South Sioux City last Monday to see her aunt, Mrs. Blessing, who is ill. Mrs. George Barto and daughter, Gladys, went to Sioux City to consult medical aid for Gladys' hand.

Beacon items in Allen News: Ed Waddel of Jackson, is visiting his folks. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Waddel, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Steele and family, Ed Waddel and Lloyd Waddel, took dinner at the Charlie Waddel home Thursday.

Winside items in Wayne Herald: Rev. S. A. Draise came from Dakota City Monday, going on to Wynot the same day and taking with him the remains of his little daughter to be buried beside those of her mother. The little daughter's body had been in the Winside cemetery for a number of years.

Pender Times: George Wilkins of Emerson, deputy U. S. revenue collector, is here this week, checking up old deals along income tax lines. He will be here until Monday evening, and will be pleased to meet anyone who figures that he has overpaid the government, as well as those who did not pay enough.

Ponca Advocate: Rev. Draise came up from Dakota City Friday evening for a visit in the Butler home. Supt. and Mrs. C. Jacobson spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Jacobson's mother in Sioux City. Miss Clara Cook was in Sioux City Friday. She spent Friday night with Dakota City friends, returning home Saturday.

Wayne Herald: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Neely went to Sioux City on business Friday, returning Saturday. Chas. Kate and family, of Sioux City, spent Thanksgiving day in Wayne, guests of Perry Theobald and family. Homer B. Skeen, who left Wayne twenty years ago, and who for fifteen years has been living at Cody, Neb., was here for a short time the fore part of the week, stopping en route home from a trip to Sioux City. Mr. Skeen reports that his father, F. M. Skeen, formerly of this place, is enjoying good health in his California home.

Sioux City Journal: Miss Edna Merrill, 221 Market street, and Emalie Clinkenbeard were married last Thursday at Parker, S. D., where the girl had told her mother she had gone on the pretext of visiting relatives. Mrs. Clinkenbeard is employed in the county treasurer's office and the groom is a salesman for the Armour Packing company.

Allen News: Miss Hazel Ottmeyer of Sioux City, is a guest at the Floyd Fogley home this week. Mrs. Maloney of South Sioux City, returned to her home Thursday noon after a visit with her daughter here. Mrs. J. H. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Heckt and daughter, Miss Lucille, went to Homer Thanksgiving day to spend the holiday with Mrs. Heckt's mother.

Sioux City Tribune: John Hogan, 80 years old, prominent farmer living west of Hubbard, Neb., died Saturday night at a local hospital from senility. Forty years ago he moved to a farm near Hubbard and resided there until the time of his death. He was a pioneer of Dakota county, and a member of the Old Settlers' association. The body was sent to Hubbard, where funeral services were held at 10 o'clock this morning at the Catholic church. He is survived by one brother, Charles Thomas Hogan, of Emerson, Neb.

Emerson Enterprise: Mrs. George Haase went to Dakota City Wednesday to spend the day with Grandma Haase. Mrs. Jim Heenan of Willis, and Mrs. Joe Heaney went to Sioux City last Friday and had their tonsils removed. Their brother, Tom Kerwin, accompanied them. Earl Poole and wife and son, from Crofton, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Poole were Thanksgiving guests at the home of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Harry Heiker, of Dakota City. Mrs. Tom Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Heenan and children, of Willis, and Mrs. Joe Heaney and children, of Emerson, spent the week-end at the home of their brother, Jack Kerwin.

Walthill Times: Miss Sylvia Lamson went to Fremont Sunday to finish her course in music. S. Haines and wife were called to Hubbard on Saturday by the sudden death of her brother, Marion Weigle. Lew Allen was home from Hubbard last Sunday for a visit with his family. He likes his job at that place just fine. Marion Weigle, of Hubbard, dropped dead Saturday morning about seven o'clock. He had been in good health and he and his son were in the timber cutting wood, when he called to his son that he was not feeling well and died in just a few minutes. He lacked just ten days of being 55 years old. The funeral was held here Monday.

day. He leaves a wife, seven boys and two girls. Mrs. S. Haines of Walthill was his sister.

Ponca Journal-Leader: The wedding of Miss Ardis Butler and J. J. Francis was a quiet family affair Saturday at high noon. Bl. de Grabbill, a friend from Lincoln, and Arbill, brother of the bride, rendered a beautiful saxophone and piano duet before the ceremony. Then, as they played the pretty wedding march, the bride and groom entered unattended and took their places under the arch, prettily decorated with the bride's colors, pink and white. Rev. S. A. Draise, of Dakota City, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Butler. The bride wore a traveling suit of brown duvetyn with nutria fur trimmings. She carried a bouquet of roses. Following the ceremony the immediate relatives present were served a three-course dinner. The room was decorated with cut flowers and the color scheme tastefully carried out. After the dinner the bride and groom left by auto for Sioux City where they took the train for their future home in Portland, Ore. They will visit in Burley and Twin Falls, Idaho, before going to Portland.

Winnipeg Chief: W. J. Leedom quit the cornfield last week Wednesday and put the road west of town in shape for winter. It froze up. The Thos. Ashford store at Homer was entered and robbed at an early hour Sunday morning. Some money, several watches and other goods are missing. Home agent it is supposed is guilty. No arrests. George Ashford of Homer is in this town yesterday and favored the Chief with a brief social call. He is a close and keen student of commercial and national affairs and we appreciated his intelligent and enlightening conversation. The John Ashford family spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ryan in Homer. Twenty-four relatives attended the dinner party there, as follows: Thos. Ashford and family, G. W. Ashford and family, and W. H. Ryan and family. H. of Homer; Dr. and Mrs. Packard of Sioux City; Dr. Maxwell and family, of Dakota City; John Ashford and family, of Winnipeg; John T. Ashford and Mrs. Ashford, of Winnipeg; and Dr. Chas. T. and Mrs. Maxwell, of Sioux City. There was a delightful dinner and a social time.
